Platform Executive Summary

BIGGEST STRENGTH

Strong visibility for Leisure Travel

For Leisure Travel searches, Renaissance New York Times Square Hotel appeared in 31.8% of AI answers, compared with 6.4% for the comparable hotels used in this analysis. That means the hotel was surfaced about 5 times as often as the comparable hotels used in this analysis. In practical terms, this is the area where the hotel is showing its clearest visibility advantage versus similar hotels.

BIGGEST CONSTRAINT

AI does not fully reflect the property

AI currently reflects 41.2% of the monitored facts and attributes that define the hotel. Important parts of the property's proposition are not consistently reflected in AI results.

CHANGE SINCE LAST COMPARABLE RUN

No comparable prior official period yet

No comparable prior official monitoring period is available yet. This period can be evaluated on its own; change over time is not shown.

Executive Conclusion

Renaissance New York Times Square Hotel's most important issue is concentrated competitive displacement by New York Marriott Marquis, not a vague visibility problem.

What the Data Is Telling Us

New York Marriott Marquis appears in 27 monitored scenarios where Renaissance New York Times Square Hotel is absent. That concentration matters more than a long competitor list because it identifies a repeatable substitution pattern. Related Reality Gap pressure includes Urban Lifestyle Hotel at 6.1% recognition, which may help explain why the hotel is not carried into those answers. Softest Scenario Capture is Family Travel at 0.0%. New York Marriott Marquis most often appears when the hotel is missing (27 scenarios).

Why It Matters

Leadership needs to understand why specific alternatives are surfaced instead of Renaissance New York Times Square Hotel in recurring demand contexts. Otherwise attention may stay on average scores while missing the concentrated leak. A displacement pattern that repeats is more actionable than a soft overall visibility narrative.

Where the Pattern Is Concentrated

Family Travel is the softest Scenario Capture at 0.0%. Focus where the gap is concentrated rather than treating every territory equally. New York Marriott Marquis appears most often when the hotel is missing (27 scenarios) — use that pattern for source and fact checks, not as proof of cause. Reality Coverage is 41.2% (7 of 17 attributes). Start with gaps that matter operationally — beginning with Pet-Friendly.
